Dear Mr. Strickling,

Thank you for allowing the Chippewa Cree Tribe to comment on the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (ARRA) broadband round two applications pending before your agency.

The seven Reservations in Montana have formed the Montana Inter-tribal Telecommunications Consortium in partnership with the Native American Development Corporation by resolution to submit an application for funding through the Broadband Technology Opportunities Program (BTOP) to spur job creation and stimulate long-term economic growth and opportunity. These large, land based Montana Reservations average over 50% unemployment, located in remote rural areas, and are historically unserved and underserved.

This partnership will provide middle mile Broadband network to bring affordable and effective last mile opportunities to the Reservations in Montana which has few middle mile access points for reservations. Each Reservation will share in ownership of the planned middle mile network, which addresses affordability, access and the opportunity for economic development. Key anchor institutions, such as the Indian Health clinics, which provides critical services to the Reservation population are very supportive of this application’s ability to bring information and communication services for health care. In addition the Montana Reservations will be able to leverage with partners Broadband services on the reservation that meet our economic goals and are of the quality that is required.

The Montana Inter-Tribal Telecommunications Consortium will serve our reservation which is located in Hill County, Montana with a tribally-enrolled population of 6,240 and is approximately 190.56 square miles. The Chippewa Cree Tribe highly recommends the Montana Inter-tribal Telecommunications project submitted by the Native American Development Corporation (grant #7638).
Thank you for your favorable consideration of this recommendation.

Respectfully,

Raymond J. Parker, Jr.
Tribal Chairman
