During this 3rd quarter 2011, Tampa Housing Authority focused on training residents with the intention of ensuring their familiarity with the basics on how to use a computer and also the promotion of purchasing a refurbished computer through the computer incentive program at a reduced rate.

Tampa Housing Authority held a meeting to coordinate administrative services and computer training schedules with community partner agencies named in the grant who committed to providing matching funds (in-kind contributions). The purpose of this meeting was to ensure that comprehensive awareness and computer training will be provided to residents living within the public housing community.

Tampa Housing has sold 36 refurbished computers to individual families including residents living within our senior developments who have completed a minimum of six (6) hours of basic computer training. To date, this grant initiative has allotted for a total of 233 families (197 installed as amenities and 36 purchased) to have access to individual computers placed in their homes.

Equipment:

- Door to Door flyer distributions containing information on training opportunities and the low cost computer purchase information.

Training Programs:

- Hands on computer training classes are held at multiple locations on a continuum schedule of weekdays and weekends to give all families an opportunity to participate.
- Training programs are provided in both English and Spanish.
