Project Indicators (This Quarter)

1. Please describe significant project accomplishments completed during this quarter (600 words or less).

Community College of District of Columbia (CCDC):
 a. Trained 331 participants in District's Wards 5 and 8; 132 adopted broadband upon completion of program.
 b. Prepared for start of program focused at recipients currently receiving aid from Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (TANF) and Food Stamps programs. Qualified individuals will begin program using discounted broadband and free laptop computers, with instruction to encourage adoption. Qualified TANF and Food Stamp recipients will begin training programs in the coming quarter. General outreach for vocational programs happened through community-based organizations, and at the CCDC sites. CCDC completed 331 surveys of possible training recipients.

District of Columbia Public Library (DCPL) has trained 61 people on the basics of PC use. Many students had very limited exposure to computers, and they come from the poorest sections of DC. Students have become familiar with the equipment, and have learned how to use the mouse, keyboard and developed other basic computer literacy skills. DCPL has distributed flyers advertising training through library branches, non-profit organizations, churches, and grass-roots organizations. Students who have completed training programs have received certificates, which will be redeemable in the coming quarter.

Washington, DC Economic Partnership (WDCEP) is working to secure locations and a final calendar for the Training Program. WDCEP is developing the training curriculum, which will address training on the lowest technology levels and will seek ties to job creation and economic opportunities.

2. Please provide the percent complete for the following key milestones in your project. Write "0" in the Percent Complete column and "N/A" in the Narrative column if your project does not include this activity. Figures should be reported cumulatively from award inception to the end of the most recent reporting quarter. Please provide a narrative description if the percent complete is different from the target provided in your baseline plan (300 words or less).

4b. Please describe your method for determining the number of households, businesses, and/or (CAIs) subscribing to broadband as a result of your SBA programs (600 words or less).

Community College of District of Columbia (CCDC) will survey pre- and post-enrollment to assess students' access to high speed Internet. In addition, those participants who receive a computer and six months broadband must report quarterly on their broadband subscription and usage status. Finally, to help fill broadband gaps, CCDC has established relationships with two providers, Clear and Comcast.

District of Columbia Public Library (DCPL) will track the number of students receiving modems and broadband and, in conjunction with Cricket, will report on those who subscribe after the free one-year broadband subscription. DCPL also completed pre- and post-surveys of recipients of training programs, asking questions regarding how computers are used; whether they have computers at home; whether they have broadband access; and hours of use. DCPL also solicited typical uses of broadband (e.g. - bill paying, e-mail, job seeking, assessments of college readiness, health, etc.

Washington, DC Economic Partnership (WDCEP) will ask each training program participant to complete a survey; participants will be asked to mark if they are households or businesses and to state if they plan to subscribe to broadband as a result of the program.

4c. Please provide a narrative explanation if the total number of new subscribers is different from the targets provided in your baseline plan (600 words or less).

For Community College of District of Columbia (CCDC), the baseline numbers of 2760 sustained broadband adopters by program completion remains on target. WDCEP and DCPL are on target with their second quarter baselines.

CCDC has hired a person dedicated to broadband and training outreach, who is expected to start in the coming quarter.

Washington, DC Economic Partnership (WDCEP) plans to continue work on the Training Programs; this will include holding the initial training program, and gathering and analyzing information and feedback from participants. Also, WDCEP will begin work on Outreach Activities, including work on the Business Plan Competition and the Small Business Awards. Outreach Activities will honor and distinguish small businesses in the District that are successfully implementing broadband services, and that will serve as an example of sustainable and successful practices.
